While I have no objection to the proposed change, I note it is in the language that was already approved by the attorney general's office. Whoever has been the contact with them should get the amendment to them for approval. They would likely want to see the entire document even if we were using the previously approved language.

Revised draft is attached, along with a copy marked to show the changes against this morning's version.

SINCE TECHNICALLY THESE ARE NOT "BONDS" BUT RATHER " CERTIFICATES OF OBLIGATION" I SUGGEST THE ATTACHED CHANGE.
