

Procedures for Registration of Division of Land in Atascosa County

An Owner whose division of land is excepted from the platting requirements of these regulations shall register the division with the County Clerk and submit the following to the Atascosa County Clerk:

- A duplicate copy of the recorded conveyance instrument, with legible metes and bounds description attached thereto.
- A survey of sketch showing the boundaries of the Lots, adjacent roads and adjacent property owners. This may be on tax parcel maps or any other map that allows County staff to clearly determine the necessary information.
- An executed registration form (provided below) to acknowledge that all Lots remain subject to the on-site wastewater rules and development permit requirements of the County.
- An Certificate of Plat Exception executed by Commissioners Court

Registration for Division of Land in Atascosa County

I STAN JORDAN, am the owner of the attached filed division of land located at 1050 PRD 92 (legal description). I have had the division of land reviewed by the Rural Development Office and they have determined the division of land is excepted from the platting requirements of Atascosa County, Texas. I acknowledge that the property as described in the filed plat description are subject to all on-site wastewater permit requirements and other development permit requirements of Atascosa County and further division of the land will need to be submitted to the Atascosa County Attorney's office for review. I acknowledge that I may apply for a Certificate of Exemption through the Atascosa County Commissioners Court.

Division Type Definitions:

Agricultural: The land is to be used primarily for agricultural use, as defined by Section 1-d, Article VIII, Texas Constitution, or for farm, ranch, wildlife management, or timber production use within the meaning of Section 1-d-1, Article VIII, Texas Constitution. However, if any part of a tract divided under this exception ceases to be used primarily for agricultural use or for farm, ranch, wildlife management, or timber production use as to defined, the platting requirements of this Order shall apply;

Family: The land is divided into four or fewer parts and each of the parts is to be sold, given, or otherwise transferred to an individual who is related to the owner within the third degree by consanguinity or affinity, as determined under Chapter 573, Government Code, provided that the division is not part of a larger planned development or a sham, or a contrivance to avoid these regulations. If any lot is sold, given, or otherwise transferred to an individual who is not related to the owner within the third degree by consanguinity or affinity, the platting requirements of this Order apply;

10+ Acres: All the lots are more than ten (10) acres in area and the owner does not lay out part of the tract [see Chapter 232.001(a)(3), Local Government Code];

Veterans Land Board: All the lots are sold to veterans through the Veterans' Land Board program;

State Agency: The land belongs to the state or any state agency board, or commission or the permanent school fund or any other dedicated funds of the state;

Political Subdivision: The land belongs to a political subdivision of the state; the land is situated in a floodplain; and the lots are sold to adjoining landowners;

Divided into two parts: One new part is to be retained by the Owner, and the other new part is to be transferred to another person who will further subdivide the tract subject to the plat approval requirements of Chapter 232 of the Texas Local Government Code and these Rules;

All parts to original owner: All parts are transferred to persons who owned an undivided interest in the original tract and a plat is filed before any further development of any part of the tract; or,
