Gold Rush XXIII – July 19 – 22, 2010
Billings, Montana

Hello City of Billings,

Each year in July, GWTA, a not for profit motorcycle touring organization of approximately 10,000 members, finds a location to hold their national rally. This year, Billings, Montana was chosen as 2010's site for Gold Rush XXIII. During the week surrounding July 19 – 22, 2010, thousands of motorcycle enthusiasts will be in the Billings area.

On Wednesday, July 21st, GWTA will be hosting a street fair type of event at The Depot from 7pm – 9pm.

We are requesting a road closure on Montana Avenue between 24th – 26th streets during The Depot event for a short time during non-peak hours (7pm – 9pm) to provide motorcycle drill team performances as entertainment for the community.

Sincerely,

Bruce Keenon
Executive Director

To Whom It May Concern:

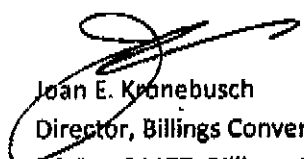

The community of Billings is once again privileged to welcome the Gold Wing Touring Association (GWTA) this summer (July 19-22, 2010) for their weeklong celebration "Gold Rush." This is a fantastic event designed for motorcycle enthusiast and meant to encourage community involvement. The Billings Chamber of Commerce/Convention and Visitors Bureau is excited to assist with bring this group to Billings.

The GWTA would like to hold a light parade, just like they did in 2008, running from Faith Evangelical Church on Zimmerman Trail up to Highway 3 and back down to Cold Stone Creamery. Each bike is lavishly decorated with lighting and it is a fun event for the participants and spectators alike. In addition, GWTA is proposing a street fair downtown on July 21st from 7 pm – 9 pm. Just like in 2008, this will involve food vendors and performances by their drill teams. The change to their proposal this year is the time of day. Last year the event was from noon until 6pm. We hope that the shorter evening event will draw more participants from the community.

The event is a perfect size and fir for Billings and GWTA informs us that their members are ecstatic to be back in our town again! We would appreciate your assistance in making these folks feel welcome.

Please feel free to contact me with any other questions you may have.

Sincerely,

Joan E. Kronebusch
