

David LeBlanc Bio

David LeBlanc is the owner/operator of MowWerx small engine repair. His entrepreneurial background spans a range of business enterprises, including helicopter pilot and flight instructor as well as operating the Boiling Pot Restaurant in downtown Austin.

David is a veteran of the US Navy where he worked in conventional and non-conventional missile operations and as a pilot rescue swimmer. He is a native Texan, born in Corpus Christi. Five years ago, David escaped Austin with his wife and two children to make Spicewood their home.