New MFFR firefighter jumps right into job

Villarreal

Special to The Highlander
 Marble Falls Fire Rescue has a new firefighter among its ranks. Josiah Villarreal, who got a two-alarm welcome to the job on his first day as he was among those on a shift dispatched to a structure fire. Josiah grew up in Brownsville and attended fire academy in Tyler. He also did additional fire training in Sulphur Springs. He recently got married to his wonderful wife Karen and the couple lives in San Antonio. Josiah joined the fire service because his family was helped out when he was little, and he wanted to give back to the community. Marble Falls residents are encouraged to welcome Josiah to the MFFR family and congratulate him on his new occupation. Members of a shift said they can't wait until he gets his paycheck so he can buy ice cream.
