

CHARLES B. "JERRY" WOLFE

PERSONAL DATA: Residence Address: 1109 Majestic Hills, Blvd.
Spicewood, Texas 78669
Telephone: (713) 871-1144 (Office)
(713) 542-3269 (Mobile)
E-Mail: charles.wolfe@lobolaw.com
Birth Date: February 12, 1944

EDUCATION: University of Texas, Doctor of Jurisprudence, 1970
Princeton University, Bachelor of Science in Engineering, 1966

Licensed to practice before the Supreme Court of Texas, Southern District of Texas, Court of Appeals for the 5th Circuit, and the Supreme Court of the United States.

PROFESSIONAL: 1984-Present: Attorney engaged in the private civil practice of law, specializing in real estate, real estate development, real estate lending.

1984-1987: Partner and General Counsel to LyBrand & Heyne, retail developers, property managers and commercial real estate brokers.

1978-1984: Vice President and General Counsel, Ashford Construction Company, general construction contractors of suburban office buildings.

1974-1978: Attorney, Lee, Brown & Wylie, attorneys representing banks, savings and loan associations and real estate interests in Houston; Trustee in Bankruptcy.

1970-1974: Assistant United States Attorney, Southern District of Texas handling civil matters, including Bankruptcy, Loan Collection and Environmental Matters.

OTHER: Past Director and President, Royden Oaks Property Owners Association, Houston
Past Trustee and Vice Chair, Mental Health/Mental Retardation Authority of Harris County; Chair of Resource Committee
Past Director, Hammersmith Homeowners Association
Director of Barton Creek Lakeside Irrigation Company

Licensed Texas Real Estate Broker, 1980-1990

During school years, working offshore, I worked as a rig electrician and mechanic responsible for electrical and mechanical systems of offshore drilling rigs and tenders. In Houston I worked for an electrical contractor as an assistant project manager for an industrial chemical plant installation.