

Whereas, at an election held on the 4th day of November, 2025, in that part of Burnet County, State of Texas, described as set forth in the attached Exhibit A, there was submitted to the qualified voters the question of whether that territory should be formed into an emergency services district under state law; and,

Whereas, at the election 267 votes were cast in favor of formation of the district and 190 votes were cast against formation; and,

Whereas, the formation of the emergency services district received the affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast at the election as provided by law;

Now, therefore, the Commissioners Court of Burnet County, State of Texas, finds and orders that the tract described in this order has been duly and legally formed into an emergency services district (or a portion thereof) under the name of Burnet County Emergency Services District No. 10, under Article III, Section 48-e, of the Texas Constitution, as proposed by S.J.R. No. 27, Acts of the 70th Legislature, Regular Session, 1987, and adopted by the voters at an election held November 3, 1987, and has the powers vested by law in the district.
