TOM DWIGGINS, Fire Chief, introduced Consent Agenda Item No 11. Chief Dwiggins said Chandler has automatic aid agreements with all neighboring fire departments except Gila River which is a mutual aid agreement. Chief Dwiggins said when an automatic aid partner needs services the request goes directly to the alarm room. On a mutual aid agreement, if assistance is needed the call would go to the alarm room and the battalion chiefs would do an assessment to see what resources levels are at and make the decision to send or not send. Chief Dwiggins said there is currently a mutual aid agreement in place, but it is 25 years old and this new agreement would outline the process to request aid and criteria for the battalion chiefs to determine how to respond. Chief Dwiggins said in the last three years Chandler has sent aid 41 times and they have provided mutual aid back six times. Chief Dwiggins said almost every time resources are sent, there have just been a few times where resources were not able to be sent.
