Mark Whitaker – Exchange Club of Chandler

CHAIR GRIEVE called for scheduled speakers.

Mark Whitaker – The Exchange Club is a community service organization over 100 years old. Mission is to inspire communities to become better places to live. Our National Child Abuse Prevention Program is helping to have our Field of Hope event at AJ Chandler Park in downtown Chandler April 16-21, 2023. The Field of Hope event is a memorial to the children who have lost their lives in Arizona in the previous year from either direct abuse or neglect. The second purpose is to try to prevent child abuse by raising awareness within the community. There will be a flag for each child who was lost the previous year. Considerations for this year is an informational fair and a fundraiser dinner. Intending to have Opening Ceremony with speakers and tea lights at the flags. Encouraging family and friends to come set up/take down the flags and share the word about the Field of Hope. Requesting ideas on how to share the information about this event. Discussion on having Art downtown and how to direct others to that area.

Discussion

4. Domestic Violence Event 2023

Commissioner Gannon will reserve Avion Center for Tuesday, September 26th, 2023. She will request set up at 8am and event from 10am-noon. Theme is Native/Indigenous. Need ideas for the title of the event. Possibly have some Indigenous appetizers, think of some ideas for visual components.

5. Community Outreach Subcommittee

CHAIR GRIEVE shared that Discussion of Healthy Relationships activity has been a success so far at local high school and junior high schools. Need people to sign up for other school's activities for January, February, and April. In future, April or May, the DV Commission will go to School Board and show pictures and resources and give them the amount of youth who we had contacted. And share that we would love to keep doing this in the future. Katie Cain will order give away items for the tables. Gave the school a deadline of first week of March for the Art project. Chair and Staff Liaison will meet with Peter Bugg – Chandler Art Commission – staff liaison.
