SWIWC is the new acronym and no longer goes by South West Indigenous Women's Coalition to be all inclusive. SWIWC is a Statewide Tribal Coalition that started in 2006, to address violence in our communities with a focus on domestic and sexual abuse, teen dating violence, stalking, missing and murder of indigenous women, sex trafficking, and LGBTQ. A Murder of Indigenous Women event will be held at the State Capital on May 5th, 2023.

Monica Antone – Gila River Indian Community Lt. Governor & AZ Coalition for Missing and Indigenous Woman and Children

Cultural and traditional resources are used for healing. There are domestic violence shelters (Eagles on Wings) work with Against Abuse in Casa Grande. VAWA now enables the Tribe to prosecute against non-tribal abusers on our Community, and now enables prosecution for violence against children and elders. We are finding human trafficking in sober living homes.
