Discussion

3. Domestic Violence Event 2023 – September 26, 2023 – AVION is the confirmed location and Parker is our contact person. Setup at 8 am and event from 10am-12pm Theme: Honoring Domestic Violence Survivor Stories from Native American Communities. The Mayor and Lt Governor Antone have agreed to speak at the event. Ideas: have a Native American male do a blessing to start the event, have SWIWC as a resource speaker to explain services and address ways to work with Native American survivors, Basket Dancers with Healing Songs, and legislative updates for Native Americans. Commissioner Codkind volunteered to be the DV Awareness Event Coordinator. Commissioner Hinchey will be contact person for Lt. Governor Antone and SWIWC. Chair Grieve will be the contact for community agencies. Discussed limiting video elements of speakers due to the challenges with technology in the past.
4. Domestic Violence Commission Community Outreach Subcommittee –
CUSD Healthy Relationships: upcoming school is Hill Learning Academy and Commissioners signed up.
Color Chandler Purple will be discussed in Subcommittee meeting.
5. Field of Hope Event – April 16, 2023: Vice Chair Lynn presented the event timeline and will be a speaker: requested assistance standing up the flags at 1pm, event begins at 6pm, and concludes with the candle lighting ceremony. The San Marcos Hotel offered the Exchange Club the courtyard for community resources so the DV Commission will have a table- Staff Liaison and Commissioner Codkind will be present from tabling at 4-6pm. Attending the event – Chair Grieve,

Vice Chair Lynn, Commissioner Codkind, Commissioner Fessel, Commissioner Lim, and Staff Liaison.
