Briefing

4. Welcome - Mayor Kevin Hartke

Chair Nigam welcomes Mayor Hartke. Mayor Hartke talks to Commissioners about what he wishes the commission to accomplish this year, such as building new connections and becoming leaders in the city by representing the city of Chandler at their school and at city events.

Group Introductions: Chair Nigam begins Group Introductions. Everyone says their name, high school, pronoun, and favorite restaurant in Chandler.

Group Icebreaker: Vice-Chair Singhania introduces the first icebreaker: Would You Rather, in order for the commissioners to get to know each other better.

MYC Information: The commissioners review the roster that include their grade year, school, emergency contact information, and dietary information and update it if necessary.

Communication: The commissioners make sure that everyone is connected to their two main ways of communication: Remind and Google Drive.

Group Icebreaker: Chair Nigam introduces Bingo where commissioners ask each other personal facts about each other relating to Chandler.

5. 2023-2024 Schedule

Chair Nigam introduces the 2023-2024 MYC schedule. The schedule is scheduled to change and will be updated in the google drive.

6. For Our City Day 2023

Secretary Lee introduces For Our City Day 2023, Chandler's Biggest Day of Community Service. This year, MYC will be assigned to a housing project with city managers. Commissioners have until August 15 to register if they want to participate in this event.

7. County Public Health Tobacco Cessation/Prevention Program

Staff Alexis discusses an upcoming opportunity for the Youth Commission to partner with Maricopa County Public Health on Tobacco Cessation and Prevention. Next meeting, the Commission will discuss if they want to be involved in a possible partnership with this organization after meeting a guest speaker.

8. Commissioner Expectations

Vice-Chair Singhania reviews the 2023 MYC Commissioner expectation sheet. MYC Commissioners must follow expectations for meeting dates and events. The biggest change from previous years is that commissioners will engage in four events, compared to five. Returning MYC commissioners sign an agreement to fulfill their duties as part of this commission.

Staff Alexis talks about the League of Conference, which is MYC's first volunteering opportunity. It will be on August 30th and is in Tucson. Due to the limited space, only six of the commissioners will represent MYC at this event. At this conference, the commissioners will experience professional development opportunities, meeting other youth commissions, meeting other council members, team building activities, networking, and more.

9. Government 101

Staff Alexis will provide a government 101 presentation, an overview of City government at our next meeting.
