Discussion

5. Board member Merritt has requested the librarian in charge of reviewing the suggested purchases can speak to their exact process and timeframe used. How many suggested books have been successfully purchased in the past few years by the current vendors, how many are declined, and what options are there if the vendor does not offer the book, but they are readily available elsewhere?

- 6. Board member Merritt would like to understand the process for purchasing popular books that have numerous holds on them? How often is the list reviewed? Is there a formula or does it depend on forecasting sustained popularity? Is it the same for books, ebooks, and audiobooks or is this dependent on the Cloud Library subscription? Is there an established goal to keep people from waiting months or a year for a book?
- 7. Board member Merritt would like to propose having a standalone shelf at every library branch for patrons to enjoy a yarn/craft/fabric exchange. It is like the puzzle swap at Basha where anyone can take or donate an item. In the Spokane Washington Library branches they all have these shelves and also a puzzle shelf. Board member Merritt loves the idea of providing more value and encouraging craftiness or discovering a new hobby to our patrons. Please read the article where Board member Merritt discovered the idea. Yarn & Fabric Exchange Spokane Library

Bond Exploratory Committee/Election Process

2024-2025

Why bonds?

- A bond election is the means by which the residents of the City of Chandler provide authorization for the city to issue bonds to fund large capital projects that are part of our well-defined Capital Improvement Program (CIP).
- Bonded debt is the primary mechanism established by State statute that enables municipalities to build, maintain, and replace public assets and infrastructure.
- Chandler issues tax-exempt bonds to fund almost 70% of the projects in the CIP.
- Chandler's interest rate on its bonds is low due to the City's well-managed debt program and superior AAA bond ratings; the highest rating given.

Why would the city want to look at adding additional authorization?

- The need for a bond election is due to the existing authorization being insufficient to fully fund the infrastructure needs in the CIP.
- The depletion of the funding has occurred at a more rapid pace than anticipated when costing projects prior to the 2021 bond election (the last time authorization was obtained), mainly due to significant inflation in capital project costs and some new project needs added in the updated 10-year CIP.
- Existing authorization is depleted beginning FY 2025-26 for Police, FY 2026-27 for Streets and Parks, and FY 2028-29 for Fire.

What is the role of the Bond Exploratory Committee?

- Evaluate capital project needs in the Chandler
- Determining which projects are priorities, and ensure bond authorization is available to allow the city to sell bonds to fund projects
- Recommend to either move forward, or not, with a bond election for specific projects or project groups/categories that are planned

What would the bond authorization recommendation look like?

- Bond authorization is grouped into categories of spending such as the following evaluated for the 2021 bond election with subcommittees discussing projects in their assigned areas
 - o Park and Recreation/Community Services
 - o Public Safety/Police and Fire
 - Public Works/Street, Transit and Water/Wastwater
 - Municipal Facilities
 - o Information Technology (did not request authorization)
 - Airport (did not request authorization)

The Bond Exploratory Steering Committee (made up of chairs from each subcommittee) with the help of the Finance Subcommittee, makes recommendations to the Mayor and Council.

What would the Bond Exploratory Committee time commitment be?

- The Steering Committee and subcommittees would kick-off in late September 2024.
- Each subcommittee would begin meeting bi-weekly or monthly during the months of October and November to review and prioritize project needs, then formulate a recommendation to the Steering Committee.
- Subcommittee recommendations would be reviewed with the Steering Committee who would deliberate in December and January for final incorporation into a recommendation brought to Mayor & Council in February or March.
- Call for Election must be by May 8, 2025.

Overview

Welcome back after our summer break! I hope everyone found time to connect with family and friends, read a good book or two, and escape the heat.

Chandler Public Library had an incredibly successful Summer Reading Challenge this year, with registration numbers far exceeding previous years. I'm so incredibly proud of our staff members across the system for their hard work. Please see the Programming section below for additional details.

September is Library Card Sign-Up Month, and our card campaign is underway. We have three limited-edition card styles that are available now for new members, while existing cardholders can opt to upgrade to a new card beginning October 1st for a $2 replacement fee. Big thanks to the Friends for co-sponsoring this initiative.

Our bookmobile project is proceeding on schedule for a spring/summer launch. Jo-el Miller and I will be visiting Farber Specialty Vehicles in September to finalize layout and design selections for the vehicle.

The planning for Hamilton Library improvements continues, with the project design phase nearing 60% completion.

Staff development day is October 14th, so each of our four branches will be closed for training, development and team-building activities.

Hamilton Branch

- We continue to move forward with the Capital Project headed towards the 60% completion of Plans in September. We are excited to add a Circulation Room for staff and Study Rooms for our patrons.
- Summer Reading Challenge was wildly successful. Programming at Hamilton was well attended, we hosted over 400 patrons for our Wildman Phil event. Our teen summer volunteers were amazing and were a big part of our success this year. Thanks to staff and volunteers for all the hard work and enthusiasm.
- Hamilton Robotics Club shared a six-week program called Operation First: Intro into the World of FRC Robotics. This program provided a fun and exciting look into robotics, which was very well received in our Hamilton Community.
- Our four-week program, Girls Who Code: Drawing with JavaScript with Hamilton's Girls Who Code Club, starts Saturday, September 21, and is always popular.
- We are excited about our fall events. Some of the Contigo events include a Quinceanera Fashion Show Fiesta, Hamilton Fiesta de a Familia event, and Folk Art Amate Painting. Some of our other Fall Programs include a Mo Willems Party for the 0-5 age group and a Diwali Family Festival.

- Sunset youth staff went to Nozomi Pool three times in June, July, and August to present Storytimes at the Pool.
- We continue to write new stories for the StoryWalks at Desert Breeze and Sunset Parks, finishing out a grant from the State Library and with support from the Friends of Chandler Public Library.
- We have a new Youth Services Librarian who moved here from Yuma to work at Chandler Sunset Library. She has been a great addition to our team.

Outreach

- Library staff presented monthly storytimes at Hamilton and Nozomi aquatic centers for nearly 200 participants. After the 20-minute storytimes, attendees enjoyed 30 minutes of free pool play in the children's area. This has been a great partnership with the City's Aquatics team.
- Two outreach staff members will attend the 2024 Association of Bookmobiles and Outreach Services Conference in Indianapolis this October. We look forward to bringing back ideas for serving our community through the mobile library.

Summer Reading Program 2024

- Over 97,000 people in Maricopa County participated in the "Adventure Begins at Your Library" reading program. You'll be pleased to know that Chandler Public Library ranked third among all library systems in the County for the number of participants! Only Maricopa County Library District and Phoenix Public Library system had more people registered than us! Chandler had 12,800 people registered and read more than 13 million minutes over the two month challenge, with 51% of participants reaching the 1000-point finish line. This is the highest number of participants we have seen in the past 10 years.
- We had an increase in participation in age groups, but especially outstanding is the 32% increase in kids ages 5-12 and 63% in adult participants!!
- We ran over 460 programs this summer, which included ongoing programs like storytimes, special summer reading events, and special programs such as the CUSD Free Summer Lunch program. We had over 21,000 people participate in our programs this summer!

September through November Programming Highlights

Chandler Contigo: September 5-October 15

Every year, the City of Chandler hosts a series of events under the title Chandler Contigo, acknowledging the heritage of approximately a quarter of our city's population. One of the flagship events of Chandler Contigo 2024 is ¡Dia de Fiesta!, which will be held on Saturday, September 21, from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. inside and outside the Chandler Downtown Library. We will have strolling mariachis, Ballet Folklorico performances, kids crafts and face paintng, a presentation from poet Alberto Ríos, masked wrestler demonstrations, food trucks and more outside. As the month-long celebration progresses, all four Chandler Library sites will host their own unique events. These include a Quinceañera Fashion Show at the Hamilton branch, an indoor-outdoor family celebration at the Sunset branch, art programs for all ages, historical presentations, and special Storytime sessions for babies, infants, and young children.

Water-Wise Workshops: September through October

Our partnership continues with City of Chandler Water Conservation and their effort to promote water sustainability for Chandler. Downtown, Hamilton, and Sunset libraries will host a series of programs that provide information and how-to tips on composting, vermiculture, xeriscaping, and desert plant maintenance.

• Writer in Residence Series: Now through December 18

We are partnering with the Arizona State Library for the Writer-in-Residence program series, which brings local authors to hold on-on-one writing consultation sessions as well as special themed workshops. Journalist Robrt Pela will be with the Basha and Downtown libraries through September 16. Robert Pela is a Pulliam Prize-winning journalist with a 30-year tenure as a columnist for the Phoenix city weekly, New Times. YA author Amy Fellner Dominy will join us October through December at Downtown, Sunset, and Basha. In addition to her writing, Amy is a playwright and has contributed to productions for Theater in One Act and A Play in Two Acts.

Spanish language classes and drop-in Spanish conversation group

The Downtown library has a Beginning Spanish class now running (registration required) as well as a Spanish Conversation Group. In the conversation program, individuals with some Spanish language proficiency meet to talk every Friday from 1-2 p.m. at the Downtown Library. No registration required.

Ready, Set, Kindergarten! Series

These 6-week kindergarten readiness programs will run at various branches through November 21. Once a session is full, a patron can always check on registration and dates for the upcoming sessions.

Fall Seed Swap at Sunset

Visit the Sunset Library on September 14 to share seeds, seed starts, and plant cuttings with your neighbors. Meet local gardeners, master gardeners, and other community members with the expertise to help you start or maintain your desert garden, and teach you to conserve when and where you can, and more!

Girls Who Code at Hamilton

Chandler Hamilton's Girls Who Code Club teaches girls to learn JavaScript and use their programming skills to create an interactive, virtual avatar! This 4-week program, taught by Hamilton's Girls Who Code club, introduces girls ages 9-12 to the artistic side of computer science in a fun, engaging way.

Junior Investors series at Basha

Members of Basha High's DECA Club teach basic budgeting and financial lessons in this 6 week series to students 9-12 years.

• Diwali Festival of Lights program series: October 25-early November.

All four Chandler library branches will host family programs in conjunction with the City of Chandler's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Division celebrating Indian culture and heritage. There will be performances, art, and hands-on activities.

Storywalk at Sunset Park and Desert Breeze Park

Take a walk and read a picture book in the permanent displays set up around the parks. Perfect for milder temperatures with children learning to read, but really fun for any age! Stories change each month, so there is always something new to see. The schedule is on the library website.

At the May Library Board meeting, Board President Beth Brizel inquired about the statistics of the 2024 tax preparation services provided at the Chandler libraries in spring 2024. Below is the breakdown:

• Downtown - AARP: 1,008

The Library Manager's Report was provided to the Library Board in advance of the meeting for Board member's review.

Board President Brizel inquired what school the first grade Read to Succeed program came from. Sue Van Horne informed the board that the students were from Chandler elementary schools closest to the downtown library; Galveston, Frye, and San Marcos.

Board President Brizel commented on how great it is that all four libraries will be cooling centers as part of the City's Heat Relief Station program.

Board member Brizel also thanked Hamilton staff for the partnership between Hamilton Library and the Hamilton Astronomy Club to provide telescopes for students and faculty to experience the eclipse.

Board member Brizel inquired on which schools held the Ready, Set, Kindergarten (RSK) program. Rachelle informed the Board that the program is held at the library, as they children are only four-and five-year-olds, not quite school age yet.

Board President Brizel is very thankful to library outreach staff for all they do with the west side high school Corona Del Sol, and for always attending all the outreach events to be there for the community.

Board President Brizel inquired on the breakdown of the tax assistance statistics per library. Rachelle responded that she will get those results from the Library Programming Manager and report back to the board at the September meeting.

Rachelle Kuzyk expanded on a couple of items from the Managers Report.

The Summer Reading Challenge registration opened May 1, and the actual challenge starts on June 1. We have already exceeded 2,000 registrants before the program has started, which is a fantastic number. Rachelle suggested to the board to follow the library on social media; Instagram and Facebook. In the last eight months our Community Services Department has a brand-new marketing team, and along with our Outreach Manager Jo-el Miller they are doing phenomenal work. The reels, posts, and the engagement going on right now is unlike anything in the four years that Rachelle has been with the library, it is top notch. If you haven't seen see the Texas Hold'em video featuring Sue, you need to seek that out. Staff have received kudos on that from the City Communications and Public Affairs Department (CAPA). Board member McCarthy inquired which social media platforms the library uses. Rachelle responded that we are on Facebook, Instagram, and X. We do not do Tik Tok.

Board member Sidhu inquired on the book vending machine at Sunset. Rachelle informed the board that the machine was sent back to the vendor. The machine did not integrate with our circulation software. We are still actively looking for something that would allow a grab and go type book nook corner or machine, even if it's a little free library that does not require staff. This may be the direction we go until we find a good product that dispenses and allows holds pickup. Rachelle informed the board that the outreach team, along with our library courier, will be responsible for the distribution of materials to fill the machine or potential book nooks in the community.

Rachelle informed the board of the successful garden party at Sunset Library. Sunset Library is next to Sunset Park, with a connecting path. Along the path are musical instruments in one direction and the permanent storywalk in the other. Board member Sidhu inquired how often the storywalks are rotated. Rachelle and Sue responded that staff rotate the stories every three months, or if there's an upcoming holiday, theme, or program they may switch it out to align with that. We also have temporary storywalks for staff to put out at special events or for schools to borrow.

Board member Pawlik inquired on the capital project at Hamilton Library. Rachelle gave the board background information and updates on the project. There is approximately $800,000 set aside for capital improvements to the Hamilton Library. We are working with the architects for a design to improve the circulation workflow. The book drop is slightly outside and it's it does not flow well with the rest of the facility, so we will be getting an improved circulation work area. The old program room was designed to house a small amount of people and is poorly designed with concrete poured stairs and barely any space for families to sit down and engage in our programs. We moved what used to be the computer lab that was dedicated for high school use onto the floor several years ago to convert that space into a usable program room, but we are now trying to get a children's programming space in the children's area of the library. Hamilton is the only library that does not have any study rooms, so we are trying to add those to make it more consistent with the rest of our libraries. We are probably at 20-30% completion on the drawings with the architect and are hoping to have those drawings completed by September. Hamilton is the smallest space of all the libraries but we can't change the footprint, so we're trying to reevaluate how we're using the space and make it better for the school and for the community.

2. Board Member Lowry will report on the funding requests for Friends supported programs and events for the 2024/25 fiscal year.

Board member Lowry gave an update on the Friends of Library and the funding requests received from library staff. Requests from the library started coming in April, then three weeks ago the Friends met to discuss and modify or approve them. There were 21 different requests for funding this year, which was 35% higher than last year, and 100% higher than two years ago. The support of the community through book sales and donations to the Friends is what allows the Friends to keep pace with everything the library wants. The function of the Friends is to take whatever they can get through donations and book sales and turn it around to give it back to the library. The Friends have approved funding so far just under $90,000 for fiscal year 2024/25, but it may end up being closer to $110,000. Some of the key programs they are supporting are community outreach with $6,500, $10,000 for a library card campaign, which was discussed in March and Rachelle made her pitch last week, $10,000 for the Grab & Go kits, which were started during COVID and have developed a life of their own. The kits have been incredibly successful and are still going strong after four years. Staff appreciation and development will receive $8,000, and I think we can all agree that staff are very deserving of every penny of that because they are critical for the success of the library. The summer reading program will receive $8,000, general library programming gets $19,000, and high five early literacy will receive $6,300. These are just some highlights, there are many more programs the Friends support. Board member Lowry wants to emphasize that the Friends are only able to do what they do because of the generosity and support from the community. He feels this year the Friends are going to gross about $110,000 in revenue and will be giving it all back. Board member Lowry also informed the board that he just signed a check for just under $135,000 for the Library Bookmobile. This is something that the Friends have been working towards for a couple of years and they are excited for Chandler's fifth library branch.

Board President Brizel is very grateful for Board member Lowry and the Friends of the Library for all they do to support the library.

Board member Pawlik inquired if it's typical that there is a Friends Board member on the Library Board. Board member Lowry replied that there is generally not a Friends Board member on the Library Board. The Friends are a totally separate non-profit organization.

Discussion

1. Malori Heppler, Community Services Marketing and Communications Program Coordinator, would like to create social media posts that introduce each of our Library Board members, for those that are interested.

Rachelle informed the board that if they are interested in having a professional headshot and a biography/profile about their service to the community and why they are serving on the library board, Malori will look after coming to a meeting. This is not mandatory, but let Courtney know if you are interested and we will coordinate with marketing.

2. Board member Merritt would like to discuss updates to the Book & Board Library Lounge; future programming ideas, requesting funds from the Friends to add to the collection each year as new and improved board games are released, what advertising efforts have been used, and usage statistics. Also, why are the games not listed by name, but only as a game collection? Therefore, they are not searchable in the catalog.

Board member Merritt has some follow-up questions on the Book and Board Lounge, as it has been open for almost one year. Rachelle responded that the games are now part of the library collection, which is under the cataloging and collections team. They have reviewed the statistics, which are not overwhelming at this point, but the games are getting used and there is a value in having them. At this point in time, this circulation is not warranting an expenditure on additional games in the lounge. The lounge is full of games so it is like any collection, we will keep an eye on it, but as things get damaged, we don't need to ask the Friends for funding to replace the games. Right now, adding money to the game collection is not a collection priority for us, which isn't to say that a year from now that may change. The lounge is still only a year old and a lot of collections take time for traction when they're brand new. Library staff are running a program survey right now. We have done some good marketing. There is a game of the month featured and Timothy from the Makery, who is kind of our gaming expert, looks after writing reviews of the games and featuring different ones, so we feel satisfied with where it's at right now. Given the newness of the collection and the purpose that it has, Rachelle feels the games are more for in-library use, which doesn't always reflect in the circulation numbers. It's an in-house circulation as opposed to an actual checkout. Sue Van Horne added that she is pleased with what she is seeing in the lounge and the board games. People are coming in, they're playing, they're taking games into the seating area, and they're also playing them within the lounge. Sue wouldn't say she's seen a lot of activity in the Dragon's Den, but that's a smaller population. The lounge is a small area so we're happy that people are in there playing and bringing their lunch with them or buying snacks. Rachelle believes there are two ways to look at the game collection; a collection in the sense that people can borrow it and take it home with them, or a program. If it's only a check-out collection, the checkout statistics are not there yet. If it's a program, its intent to draw people into the library for us to engage with them and give them the space to use it is fulfilled. For now, it's not a collection that we need continue to dump money into, but as a program, it's phenomenal right now. So right now it is functioning more as a program and program space for the library, as opposed to a collection that would be rivaling the DVD, fiction, or picture book circulation. People are just not borrowing it to the same extent, but it is getting the same engagement from the community as people coming in to sit and read magazines or attend a program or come to our job center. So, collection versus program? Rachelle feels it just depends on the philosophy that you take on what the library is getting from it, so for Rachelle right now, it is a very successful program. Board member Merritt also inquired on browsing the collection online. Rachelle stated the game collection was meant to be, at least from the cataloging perspective, a browsing collection and not collection was meant to be, at least from the cataloging perspective, a browsing collection and not a holdable collection. The intensity of staff resources for the games is a more labor-intensive collection to manage than checking in a library book. Sue added that we are not having patrons come in asking for games by name or recommending games to purchase.

Members Comments/Announcements

1. Board member McCarthy inquired as a new library board member, what can he do to help? Rachelle responded that there are two different functioning types of library boards; a governing library board and an advisory library board. Ours is an advisory library board. There are several important policies that this board sets, and they have recently reviewed and approved them just in the past year. The sticky one is the collection development policy. The board essentially runs interference between the community and City Council when some of those controversial political conversations happen. Because board members are appointed by council, they serve as the voice to the community. The importance of the Freedom of Information and the collection, and development policy, which is the most important policy that this group sets. Fines and fees are also set by the library board. Three years ago, this library board voted to remove fines. Being a community advocate for the library is the primary job as a member of the library board, and of course to show up at the meetings and be supportive, ask questions, and bring ideas. Sue and Rachelle are happy to give library tours. Chris is happy to give you a tour of the Basha facility while you're here tonight. As you rotate through meetings to the different libraries, we always like to have the library managers there. Each library has a unique personality and character and so you'll see different little things at each of them. Reach out to Rachelle directly and she and Sue will coordinate a tour, even if it's a one-on-one tour of the downtown library. Then as we go through the other board meetings, we will give you tours of the other facilities.
