Briefing

2. Review Expenses and Revenues of the October 4th fundraising event
 - Museum Manager, Jody Crago presented a spreadsheet of the expenses and revenues from the October 4th fundraising event.
 - i. The presented spreadsheets excluded a final budget for part-time staff
3. Review Private Donor Offer
 - Mr. Crago shared that an anonymous private donor reached out to the Chandler Museum Foundation wanting to help fund a virtual rendering of an unbuilt Frank Lloyd Wright building for the Frank Lloyd Wright exhibition that the Chandler Museum is planning to open in Fiscal Year 2028.
 - i. The rendering would be completed by Skyline Ink, a company that specializes in photorealistic 3D video rendering of buildings that no longer or have never existed.
 - ii. Mr. Crago shared a few examples of renderings that the company has previously created.
 - iii. The donor is willing to contribute a $10,000 restricted donation to fund one rendering of the San Marcos of the Desert unbuilt Frank Lloyd Wright design.
 - Mr. Askey asked about who would own the rights of the rendering after its creation and if the Chandler Museum would be able to show it freely.
 - i. Mr. Crago will look into this and provide an answer at a later meeting.
 - Mr. Askey asked if the Chandler Museum would need to lease or somehow receive permission to use the rights to the building from the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation.
 - i. Mr. Crago will look into this and provide an answer at a later meeting. He and other Chandler Museum staff will be meeting with staff from the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation within a week of this meeting
