Discussion

Connection & Impact Updates

Niki Tapia shared that members of the Human Relations Commission have been reinstated for the upcoming year. She also noted that at a future meeting, pending Commission approval, there may be a change in HRC leadership, including the election of a new Chair and new Vice Chair.

CC Cantabrana shared that Connection & Impact has been receiving a high volume of YouthSpark Education grant requests. Cantabrana also shared that the division has been invited by Hartford Elementary to participate in a school celebration on April 24. Cantabrana requested that one HRC member attend the event with her to staff a table, engage with the community, and distribute giveaways to students and their families. Vice Chair Betty Ramirez volunteered to participate and expressed that she is looking forward to the event.

HRC Goal Setting and Next Steps

Taylor Ducklow from Braver Spaces Consulting engaged the Commission in a goal-setting orientation and interactive workshop. Commissioners discussed the strengths of the Commission, identified gaps, and explored sustainable goals moving forward. Ducklow will return at the next meeting to continue the goal-setting process and support the Commission in activating these goals.
