INQUIRIES: Any question related to a Request for Contract must be directed to the person whose name appears on the front. Questions should be submitted in writing when time permits. The Board of Supervisors may require any, and all questions to be submitted in writing at the County's sole discretion. Any correspondence related to a Request for Contract should refer to the appropriate Request for Contract number, page, and paragraph number.

PROSPECTIVE OFFEROR'S CONFERENCE: A prospective offeror's conference may be held. If scheduled, the date and time of this conference will be indicated on the cover page of this document. The purpose of this conference will be to clarify the contents of this Request for Contract in order to prevent any misunderstanding of the County's position. Any doubt as to the requirements of this Request for Contract or any apparent omission or discrepancy should be presented to the County at this conference. The County will then determine the appropriate action necessary, if any, and issue a written amendment to the Request for Contract. Oral statements or instructions will not constitute an amendment to this Request for Contract.

 - 2.1 Waive any immaterial defect or informality; or
 - 2.2 Reject any or all proposals, or portions thereof; or
 - 2.3 Reissue a Request for Proposals.
3. A response to a Request for Contract is an offer to contract with the County based upon the terms, conditions, scope of work and specifications contained in the County's Request for Contracts. Contracts do not become valid until they are accepted by an authorized procurement office. A contract is formed when the procurement office provides written notice of award(s) to the successful offeror(s). The contract has its inception in the award document, eliminating a formal signing of a separate contract. For that reason, all of the terms and conditions of the procurement contract are contained in the Request for Contract; unless modified by a Solicitation Amendment or a Contract Amendment signed by the authorized procurement officer.

Without limiting the foregoing, Force Majeure includes acts of God; acts of the public enemy, war; riots; strikes; mobilization; labor disputes; civil disorders; fire; flood; lockouts; injunctions-intervention-acts, or failures or refusal to act by government authority; and other similar occurrences beyond the control of the party declaring Force Majeure which such party is unable to prevent by exercising reasonable diligence. The Force Majeure shall be deemed to commence when the party declaring Force Majeure notifies the other party of the existence of the Force Majeure and shall be deemed to continue as long as the results or effects of the Force Majeure prevent the party from resuming performance in accordance with this agreement.

Force Majeure shall not include the following occurrences:

Late performance by a subcontractor unless the delay arises out of a Force Majeure occurrence in accordance with this Force Majeure term and condition. Any delay or failure in performance by either party hereto shall not constitute a default hereunder or give rise to any claim for damages or loss of anticipated profits if, and to the extent that such delay or failure is caused by Force Majeure.

If either party is delayed at any time in the progress of the work by Force Majeure, the delayed party shall notify the other party in writing of such delay, as soon as is practical, of the commencement thereof and shall specify the causes of such delay in such notice. Such notice shall be hand delivered or mailed certified-return receipt and shall make a specific reference to this article, thereby invoking its provisions. The delayed party shall cause such delay to cease as soon as practicable and shall notify the other party in writing when it has done so. The time of completion shall be extended by contract modification for a period of time equal to the time that results or effects of such delay prevent the delayed party from performing in accordance with this contract.

18. Right to Assurance: Whenever one party to this contract in good faith has reason to question the other party's intent to perform, he may demand that the other party give a written assurance of this intent to perform. In the event that a demand is made and no written assurance is given within five (5) days, the demanding party may treat this failure as an anticipatory repudiation of the contract.

19. Records: Pursuant to provisions of title 35, Chapter 1, article 6 Arizona Revised Statutes §35-214 and §35-215 each contractor shall retain, and shall contractually require each subcontractor to retain, all books, accounts, reports, files and other records relating to the acquisition and performance of the contract for a period of five (5) years after the completion of the contract. All such documents shall be subject to inspection and audit at reasonable times. Upon request, a legible copy of any or all such documents shall be produced at the offices of the Auditor General, the Attorney General, and the State Purchasing Office, the County Board of Supervisors or the State Board of Equalization or any agency doing business under this contract.
20. Advertising: Contractor shall not advertise or publish information concerning this contract, without the prior written consent of the County. The County shall not reasonably withhold permission.
21. Exclusive Possession: All services, information, computer program elements, reports and other deliverables, which may be created under this contract, are the sole property of the County and shall not be used or released by the contractor or any other person except with prior written permission of the County.
22. Title and Risk of Loss: The title and risk of loss of material or service shall not pass to the County until the County actually receives the material or service at the point of delivery, unless otherwise provided in this contract.
