Summary: As written, and with respect to counties alone, this bill does two things:

- Prohibits a county from requiring “any type of license or permit” for a business that is a) “operated by a person who is under nineteen years of age,” and b) “operated only occasionally.”
- Specifies that “a person who is under nineteen years of age” is not required to obtain a transaction privilege tax (TPT) license – or to remit taxes required by Title 42; Chapter 5 (TPT), Title 42; Chapter 6 (Local Excise Taxes), or special taxing districts if the business’ gross income for the calendar year is less than $10,000.
