

Established in 1924

Celebrating Community,
Agriculture, and Tradition

Overview

- • Annual community event held in September
- • Showcases agriculture and local talent found throughout the county.
- • 4 days of family-friendly entertainment
- • Key regional tradition

History

- Association was formed in 1924
- Private Non-Profit 501©3 organization
- Run by a volunteer board of directors

Location

- Located at 3677 N. Leslie Canyon Road in Douglas, Arizona
- 47 acres includes a rodeo arena, livestock barns, horse stalls, and multiple indoor facilities

Agricultural Exhibits

A group of youth, including boys and girls, are standing in a livestock show ring. They are wearing white shirts and dark pants. In the foreground, several white sheep are lined up. The background shows other people and the structure of the show ring.

- Livestock shows & auction

- Crop and produce displays

- Youth participation (4-H & FFA)

Entertainment

A photograph of a rodeo arena at night. A cowboy wearing a black hat, a red vest over a light blue shirt, and blue jeans is riding a dark horse. The horse is in motion, kicking up dust. In the background, a large crowd of spectators is seated in bleachers. The arena is enclosed by a white wooden fence.

- Live music and performances

- Rodeo events

- Carnival rides and games

Competitions

- Livestock judging

- Baking and crafts contests

- Ranch & Youth Rodeo

Community Impact

- SUPPORTS LOCAL ECONOMY

- PROMOTES AGRICULTURE EDUCATION

- BRINGS COMMUNITY TOGETHER

A photograph of three young women working together at a table in what appears to be a community center or a food bank. The woman on the left is leaning over the table, the woman in the middle is looking towards the right, and the woman on the right is looking towards the center. There are various items on the table, including a coffee machine and some containers. In the background, there is a whiteboard with some text and a small figurine on a shelf.

Volunteerism

- Relies on dedicated volunteers
- Opportunities for all ages
- Critical to event success

Key Takeaways

- Celebrates local culture and agriculture
- Offers fun for all ages
- Strengthens community bonds
- Depends on community support

102ND ANNUAL
COCHISE COUNTY FAIR

Country Nights, Carnival Lights

SEPTEMBER 24-27, 2026

THANK YOU!

- • Join us at the next Cochise County Fair!
- • Support local traditions and community events