

Subject site from road looking west

Subject site from road looking south

Subject site from road looking east to property opposite

(note sewage plant and cinder quarry clearly visible through non-screened low fence and no landscaping)

Subject site from road looking north

(note other cinder quarry)

City sewage plant opposite with no screening or landscaping

View of nearby cinder quarry

Cemex storage yard adjacent with no screening or landscaping

anyon Rio de Flag Meander Restoration Phase II CEMEX continues to protection of biodiversity and is dedicated to nature conservancy. certified through the Wildlife Habitat Council's Corporate Lands for at: <http://www.cemexusa.com/Sustainability/ConservationProjects> es in which we live and work is a core value at CEMEX USA. We le- ur employees' talent and time, and our social investments to sup- economic development of our surrounding communities.

ional information please Michael Scharfencamp at (928) 526-5250

www.cemex.com for more information

ADOT Storage yard in distance

View from subject property to adjacent CEMEX yard

View from subject property to opposite sewage plant and cinder quarry

Cemex storage yard adjacent with no screening or landscaping

