

Jack Welch Memorial Bridge on the Arizona Trail

Jack Welch (1938-2023)

was an early advocate for the creation of Picture Canyon Natural and Cultural Preserve.

Through his group "Walk the Walk"
he raised awareness and educated the public on the importance of conservation, leading over 100 walks through Picture Canyon. Jack was a champion of connecting people with open spaces and trails.

18x12" cast holly bronze or solid bronze, gold areas are raised bronze, background is brown leather texture, blind studs for mounting