

CITY OF FLAGSTAFF – OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, recovery from mental health, substance use, and co-occurring conditions is an essential part of health and one’s overall wellness; and

WHEREAS, recovery supports for mental health and substance use conditions and co-occurring conditions are effective, and people can and do recover in our area and around the nation; and

WHEREAS, addressing and overcoming mental health, substance use, and co-occurring conditions is essential to achieving holistic health; and

WHEREAS, to help more people with lived experience achieve and sustain recovery, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration recognize every September as National Recovery Month to promote and support new evidence-based treatment and recovery practices, recognize the nation’s strong and proud recovery community, and honor the dedication of service providers and communities who make recovery possible.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Becky Daggett, Mayor of the City of Flagstaff, Arizona do hereby proclaim the month of September 2025 as in the City of Flagstaff, and call upon the people of Flagstaff to observe this month with appropriate programs, activities, and ceremonies to support this year’s Recovery Month theme, Recovery is REAL—Restoring Every Aspect of Life—and focus on the four major dimensions of recovery—health, home, community, and purpose—as the building blocks that all people need to live healthy, happy, and independent lives.

Dated this 23rd day of September 2025

Becky Daggett
