OK - I think this is a good clean copy. It has been retyped with the underlines / strike throughs. The resolution was also redrafted. I believe I managed to address the issues that were raised at our recent meetings but appreciate any feedback you may have. Please feel free to contact me with any questions that may arise during your review.

Thank you.

"Jim Walker" Peggy, this office will be reviewing and comment... 05/08/2014 02:22:42 PM

Peggy, this office will be reviewing and commenting upon a final, draft ordinance proposal for form and correctness. So far as I am aware, such a document is not yet in hand. As you are of course aware, any ordinance includes a title. Assessing the title's sufficiency is an essential part of the process. So we will need a document in final proposed form, with a title, and including all language to be removed from the code and identifying all such language with strike-out lines. The draft ordinance should likewise include all language to be added to the code, denoting such language by underlining. The ordinance draft further specifies that it is repealing all ordinances or parts thereof in conflict, and finally specifying an effective date. I won't need anything color-coded, in red or otherwise. So long as I have the language itself in front of me, in correct form, that will be sufficient.

As you yourself are aware, there are a number of successive, informal drafts and redrafts floating around, some lined, some not, some colored, some not. To avoid possibility of either confusion or duplication of effort, I am wanting to start off here with a "clean slate". So just give me, in ordinance form, whatever product has emerged from deliberations to date. It will then be reviewed for form and correctness.

Finally, Karen has been expressing some concerns heretofore about language in the resolution as it was originally proposed. So there, too, if you can provide me with a copy of the resolution in the form you currently wish considered that will be appreciated as well. Thanking you for your time and attention, I am and continue to remain, as always,
Most Cordially and Respectfully Yours, James T. Walker

Mr Walker,

I have provided you with a draft that is red lined. If your computer is not showing them and you are unable to access the review tab to make them appear, please ask your secretary if she can assist.

As for the final draft that includes the last two paragraphs, I will include them in the next draft after I make the changes that were discussed yesterday as well as addressing any comments from you that I receive.

Peggy

Peggy, please allow me to clarify so there is no confusion here: we're needing from you a proposed draft ordinance in final form. That is, there is needed a document with strike-out lines thru code language being deleted, and underlining of new code language being added. The final two sections of the draft ordinance repeal whatever code language is inconsistent and provide for an effective date. Hope this helps?

And it only shows in mine with the red line. If you go to the top tabs, click the "review" tab. There you have the choice to view it as a final draft or final with mark ups. If that does not work, I can have Colleen send a hard copy tomorrow.

For some reason, no matter which way I save it, it always shows on my computer with the red lines. I have to go into the review tab and change it to the final version to see it without the red lines. I am attaching the one I saved as "fourth version - final" but not sure what format it will actually be delivered.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I will be out of the office both tomorrow and Friday, but e-mails will be sent to my phone if you have any questions you need addressed immediately. Or you can always forward the information to Colleen at 772-467-3149 and she can reach me directly.

Peggy, thank you for forwarding this 4th draft. It would be very helpful in getting us to the next step were you to reduce that draft to the form of a final, proposed ordinance, with underlining and strike-outs? Am thinking it will be much easier for all to work from such a document. Many thanks. Depending on how quickly you can turn that around, I'll declare tomorrow to be officially "Vendor Ordinance Day" and make that my big project of the day, with the idea of getting a memo over to you by the end of Friday w/a list of suggested points?. /JimW
