

The memo from the City Attorney that is referred to as an attachment is a litigation privileged document and has been removed.