Brochures

More to say? Choose a tri-fold or new bi-fold layout to easily share your story.

Go for a brochure

Brochures are a great way to connect with customers by bringing your brand's story to life and presenting your products and services. You'll get professional results without being an expert designer too – just pick one of our templates (or upload your own) and add your information.

Here are some tips to help your folded brochure hit home:

- Create some curiosity. The front cover needs to persuade the reader to look inside. Less is more here – use concise language to convey the key benefit of your business.
- Use headlines. This lets readers scan your brochure quickly. Benefit-led headlines are recommended – describe how your product or service will improve their life.
- Address the reader as “you”. This is much more personable and engaging than the corporate-sounding “customers”.
- Include a call to action. Should the reader visit your website or call you directly? Tell them clearly what the next step is.
- Create urgency! Include time-limited discounts and phrases such as “call now” or “order today” to urge the reader to act.
