FMEA Policy-maker Scholarship Program

Recipients of the FMEA Policy-Maker Scholarship are awarded complimentary conference registration. Additional conference functions are not included (i.e., Fellowship Breakfast and Spouse/Guest registration.)

Recipients must meet the following criteria:

- One scholarship awarded annually per FMEA utility member
- Recipient must be a first-time conference attendee
- Recipient must be accompanied by a senior-level city or utility official who is fully registered for the Conference

- Registration opens soon, please check back!

Sponsorship Opportunities

The conference is important to your business because it brings together the top elected officials and decision-makers of Florida's public power utilities. If you conduct business with municipal electric utilities, you understand that sustained relationships and continuous visibility to this market segment are essential for long-term success. This conference is the premier event for interaction with key personnel of FMEA's member utilities.
