Animal Control Officer Gasparre read the facts of the case. She said she went by this morning and the dog was still tethered. Her husband, Kevin, thought he had 45 days to comply. They still needed to get a kennel.

Jannice Douglas of United for Animals was sworn in. She said they would help her get a kennel. She said the dog has been neutered and they would help to transport the pen once Kevin purchased it.

Deborah said the pen has been purchased from Lowes and it's been raining or they would have it by now.

In the meantime, Officer Gasparre, said she had to get a collar for the dog.

After hearing the Animal Control Officer's and the animal owner's testimony Special Magistrate continued this case until the next hearing date.

VIOLATOR: Ashlae Hudson	VIOLATION: Citation #: 555 AC & 556 AC
----------------------------	---

Citation #	Code Section	Fine / Counts	Total Fine	Admin Fee	AC Surcharge	Total Due
555 AC	4-50 City Registration Required	2 @ $250.00	$500.00	$0.00	$5.00	$505.00

Animal Control Officer Nelson read the facts of the case. He said in July 2018 he issued warnings for Ashlae to obtain rabies, registration, and tethering. He has been trying to work with her but she has done nothing. She has provided no shelter, they have no room to move, and are left out in terrible conditions. She has now turned the dogs over to us.

Jannice Douglas, United for Animals, said they have been trying to work with her since May 2018. The dogs were living in terrible conditions and their future is questionable.

Ashlae Hudson was sworn in. She said she had nothing to say; just how much do I owe.

Due to the dogs being turned over to the Animal Control, the Special Magistrate dismissed Citation 555. She found a violation does exist and the violators are ordered to pay the amount on the citation number(s) listed as follows; unless, the violations are brought into compliance within the expiration date:

Citation #556 - $200.00 plus an AC surcharge of $5.00 for a total of $205.00 payable in 45 days. Failure to pay the total amount prior to the expiration date will result in the case being turned over to the St. Lucie County Court and an additional fee may be imposed.
