

KEEP PORT ST. LUCIE BEAUTIFUL – NEW COMMITTEE MEMBER

The City's Keep Port St. Lucie Beautiful (KPSLB) Committee is pleased to announce a new individual has been selected to join its committee. KPSLB welcomes Maney Gale. We are pleased she has decided to become dedicated in serving as a highly involved committee member for Keep Port St. Lucie Beautiful. The date of her appointment was October 2020, and she will serve the City's KPSLB Committee for two years. Ms. Gale fills the open seat that became available after the resignation of Jeff Sibley.

There now are nine current committee members. Many thanks to Fred Knaggs, Jenny Tomes, Judith Sekscenski, Carl Whaley, Nicole Hricik, Bethany Partlo, Charles A. McLain and Christine Rudy for their hard work, participation and support with our past events and activities last year.

KPSLB continues to value the commitment, expertise and involvement of our other members.

Keep Port St. Lucie Beautiful committee's mission is to improve our quality of life through education, beautification and litter control.

The KPSLB committee is a working committee, highly involved in events throughout the year, along with enthusiastically promoting beautification of the City through various programs, including an annual Cleanup Day, Adopt-A-Street Program, anti-littering education campaigns and many more initiatives. Additional information about the committee may be found online: <http://www.cityofpsl.com/kpslb>

The committee meets at 3 p.m. the first Wednesday of every month. These meetings are open to the public. The Committee complies with Florida Sunshine Law provisions. Congratulations to our newest committee member!
