

I'm Still Standing 2023

Deadline to Apply: August 9, 2022

Cultural Alliance & The Inner Truth Project are thrilled to announce I'm Still Standing 2023, a second annual collaboration between sexual abuse survivors and Cultural Alliance Art Guild Members. I'm Still Standing 2023 is a creative project that will partner survivors with professional artists to create artwork incorporating up-cycled/ recycled materials, allowing them to bravely share the truth about their experiences in a safe environment to actualize emotional strength, hope, health, and well being.

Each artist will receive a $250 stipend, and each pair will receive $250 in reimbursable expenses for material costs. Selected artists will need to attend an initial meeting to meet their survivors on August 11 at 6 PM at The Inner Truth Project. I'm Still Standing 2023 Artists will be announced at the Inaugural I'm Still Standing Exhibit Closing Night Reception on August 25 at the Cultural Alliance Gallery.

The Inner Truth is located at 2190 Reserve Park Trce STE 13, Port St. Lucie, FL 34986

Art Bash: Gallery Exhibition & Art Expo

Deadline to Apply: September 19, 2022

Cultural organizations, artists of all disciplines, dignitaries, and art-connoisseurs come together at the Cultural Alliance Art Bash to launch the 2022 – 23 Season at MIDFLORIDA Event Center. A juried gallery exhibition features favorite works of Cultural Alliance Art Guild members. An Art Expo assembles local cultural organizations to share news on their season and an array of works by local artisans to enjoy and purchase. A diverse lineup of dance and music will complete this night of celebration of the arts!

Performers and schools are encouraged to apply to be a part of a rich lineup. Stipends are available for professional artists.
