5. OLD BUSINESS

- a. Downtown Fort Pierce Parking Analysis

The committee discussed the recommendations they will be presenting to the Commissioners at the upcoming Conference Agenda in August. They have a list of four items to recommend to the Commission: the items not covered in the downtown parking analysis like the updated parking needs of St. Lucie County and regular occurring events, request an updated parking analysis within 30 days from St. Lucie County to determine their specific parking needs, engaging St. Lucie County in their involvement to resolve the parking shortage in downtown Fort Pierce, and having the city manager reach out to the county administrator to schedule a meeting within 90 days.

b. Mission Statement

This item was tabled for next month's discussion.

6. NEW BUSINESS

7. COMMITTEE AND STAFF COMMENTS

Special Projects Coordinator, Audria Moore-Wells asked Code Compliance Supervisor, Janey Vanderhorst, to give a brief update. Ms. Vanderhorst mentioned there is now a Full-time code enforcement officer to enforce the 2 hour parking in downtown Fort Pierce as well as assistance from all other code officers.

8. ADJOURNMENT

Michael Broderick adjourned the meeting at 10:02 AM.
