Trevor Banks Jr is currently the CEO of Resurrection Life CECD whose main objective is to ignite transformation through attainable housing, education, workforce development and community wellness.

Mr. Banks currently spearheads two groundbreaking initiatives centered around public-private partnerships and faith-based relationships, poised to deliver 800 units of mixed-use and income housing in Fort Pierce, FL.

The scope of the faith-based and public-private initiatives include two churches, two charter schools, a community health clinic, a teen tech center and marketing agency, fitness center, as well as retail space catering to local, regional, and national businesses.

At the heart of these initiatives is Embassy Village which consists of three expansive 31,000 +/- square foot domes, each housing a comprehensive array of amenities. Embassy Village includes a health and wellness community center, a cutting-edge business incubator offering entrepreneurship start-up training and accommodations for over 20 small businesses, a 90 key Hilton hotel and more.

Trevor has meticulously assembled a team of over 150 seasoned professionals in commercial real estate and affordable housing, featuring expertise in co-development, construction management, legal counsel, land planning, and architecture and design. His strategic leadership and collaborative approach ensure the success and impact of these transformative initiatives.
