I'm a litigation partner at a top-25 law firm. I have represented many businesses throughout the course of my career and understand key metrics and drivers for success. My bio can be found here: <https://www.hklaw.com/en/professionals/s/saladrigas-caitlin-f> During my time as a practicing lawyer, I have also served on multiple boards for colleges and other non-profits which provides me with experience reputation building and fundraising. I was an Advisory Board Member to the Wilkes Honors College of Florida Atlantic University for six years and lead their Alumni Network during that time. I served on the Raise the Bar Committee of the Women's Foundation for two years. I have also served as a committee chair for multiple groups within the Florida Association of Women Lawyers and the National Association of Women Lawyers. My husband and I actively support Path to College and he has been a board member there of nearly five years. I'm acutely aware of the importance of both in developing and maintaining organizations like Sunrise Theatre. I live in West Palm Beach, a city that has grown significantly in the past decade but which has maintained a lot of its historic landmarks and original charm. I have lived here through much of that growth and can speak to the benefits and pitfalls that flow from it. Finally, although I live in West Palm Beach, my husband and I own a home on North Hutchinson Island and spend many weekends and much of the summer there with our children. We frequent downtown Fort Pierce and have been enchanted by it for nearly two decades. I would relish the opportunity to share my skills and experience with this beloved institution.
