Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

In 3 above, if applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes, you are considered a person if you are:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or
- Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(a) and 7(a) for additional information.

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

- QUESTION: What is the total ERC for the lift station?
- ANSWER: 7.6
- QUESTION: What was the basis for determining ERC? (i.e. Existing Little Jim store, future expansion which may include a restaurant, and restrooms towards roadway that is located on DOT property)?
- ANSWER: Existing restaurant and public restroom facilities.

BID NO. 2025-008

ADDENDUM NO. 6

The purpose of this addendum is to respond to questions submitted by potential bidders for clarification of the bid specifications:

QUESTION: The benchmarks on the plan are in NAVD88 datum but the finished grade for the slab at the lift station is in NGVD datum. The 5.0' finished grade in NGVD would then lend itself to the proposed structures also being in NGVD datum but I do not see any note on the plans either way. Do you have any clarification?

ANSWER: All benchmarks and elevations are in NAVD 88 datum.

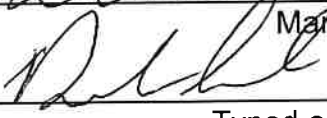

QUESTION: Can you clarify where the 2" gate valve on the bid sheet is located?

ANSWER: The 2" gate valve is to be installed on the exterior of the valve vault prior to the air release valve.

All other conditions of this bid remain the same.
