I serve as Manager of the Manatee Center, overseeing operations, staff, budget, and strategic direction for a leading cultural and environmental site in downtown Fort Pierce. I bring more than 15 years of leadership experience in nonprofit and museum management, including visitor services, education, and community engagement. I hold a graduate degree in Public Management from Carnegie Mellon University and an undergraduate degree in Fine Arts from the University of Nebraska–Lincoln. My expertise includes organizational planning, operational efficiency, and partnership development. My work focuses on aligning mission-driven organizations with community priorities through measurable outcomes and effective governance. I bring a management perspective grounded in accountability, cross-sector collaboration, and results-oriented planning to strengthen and sustain Fort Pierce’s arts and cultural assets.
