

The design of the new building shall match the same existing style set by the existing buildings. The materials and colors shall match existing buildings as well. All buildings shall be connected with covered walkways to match the existing walkways. This will unify the look of the entire campus