STAFF PRESENTER(S): Dawn Stipe, Recreation Superintendent

---

OTHER PRESENTER(S):

Kimberly R. Hill, Commissioner

SUMMARY

The Arts & Culture Commission's Events and Advocacy Subcommittee will present opportunities for participation in special events taking place from January through June 2027 to increase public awareness of Goodyear's Arts and Culture programs, resources, and initiatives.

RECOMMENDATION

Select two special events taking place between January and June 2027 for commissioner engagement and recommend them to the Arts and Culture Commission for consideration. (Dawn Stipe, Recreation Superintendent)

BACKGROUND AND PREVIOUS ACTION

In previous years, the subcommittee's participation in City special events has primarily focused on Chalk Art in the Park and the Fall Festival. Building on this involvement, the subcommittee has identified opportunities to expand commissioner participation in community events, increase public engagement, and promote arts and culture throughout Goodyear.

As part of these ongoing efforts, the subcommittee is exploring additional special event opportunities for commissioner participation from January through June 2027.

STAFF ANALYSIS

Expanding the subcommittee's participation in city special events would increase public awareness of the Commission's role, promote local artists, and encourage community engagement in Arts and Culture.

Selecting two additional special events between January and June 2027 would provide meaningful engagement opportunities while considering commissioner availability, staff resources, and event coordination. Staff will work with participating commissioners to identify appropriate activities within existing resources.

No additional funding is required.

OTHER PRESENTER(S):

Kimberly R. Hill, Commissioner

SUMMARY

The Subcommittee will present its proposed goals and timeline for developing outreach materials and handouts to increase public awareness of Goodyear's Arts and Culture programs, resources, and initiatives.

RECOMMENDATION

Discuss and establish a Public Art Passport to showcase The City of Goodyear's unique public art and cultural destinations. (Dawn Stipe, Recreation Superintendent)

BACKGROUND AND PREVIOUS ACTION

The Arts & Culture Commission Subcommittee has previously discussed opportunities to increase public awareness and engagement with Goodyear's public art and cultural assets. During these discussions, commissioners expressed interest in developing printed materials and other outreach resources to complement the information currently available on the city's website.

Building on previous discussions, the public art passport would showcase Goodyear's public art collection and cultural destinations, providing residents and visitors with opportunities to explore and engage with the City's arts and culture offerings.

STAFF ANALYSIS

This interactive resource would encourage residents and visitors to discover local sculptures and other cultural attractions while celebrating Goodyear's creative identity. The Subcommittee will discuss the initiatives, goals, outreach opportunities and proposed timeline to bring the vision to life. Staff will evaluate design, printing, and production costs within the existing budget.

No additional funding is anticipated at this time.
