American Association of Police Polygraphists, Inc. (AAPP) Constitution

ARTICLE I

The name of the Association shall be the American Association of Police Polygraphists, also known as AAPP.

ARTICLE II

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the AAPP will be:

- A. To encourage and develop cooperation among all American Law Enforcement Organizations in the application and utilization of accepted polygraph techniques.
- B. To develop the highest standards of proficiency in the polygraph profession by fostering and encouraging scientific training and research through advanced study and progressive techniques.
- C. To promote and maintain the highest standards of ethics, integrity, honor and conduct in the polygraph profession.
- D. To provide an opportunity and forum for the exchange of information regarding polygraph experiences, studies and research.
- E. To cooperate with other national, regional and state polygraph associations and other professional organizations in matters of mutual interest and of benefit to the polygraph profession.

ARTICLE III

DEFINITIONS

- A. RECOGNIZED POLYGRAPH SCHOOL: One designated as such by the Board of Directors. Recognition will be based upon licensing and/or authorization granted by the appropriate government body when necessary for the school to operate in its physical location. If no such licensing and/or authorization exists or is necessary, the Board of Directors may grant recognition to the school. Additionally, this recognition shall be based upon the professional ethics of the school, instructors and curriculum, and other items which the Board of Directors believes pertinent in granting recognition.
- B. AMERICAN LAW ENFORCEMENT ORGANIZATION: A duly constituted law enforcement, investigative or intelligence agency acting pursuant to a grant of authority of the United States, a state government or a local government.
- C. LAW ENFORCEMENT POLYGRAPHERS: Any United States citizen who is a current employee, salaried or contract, of an American Law Enforcement Organization whose responsibilities include the administration of polygraph examinations for that employer; has met licensing/certification requirements mandated in the state of residence/practice; and is a graduate of an AAPP recognized polygraph school. Any foreign member who is current and in good standing with the AAPP on the date of acceptance (April 18, 2007) of the change to this definition is hereby grandfathered in the respective current membership status as long as such member remains current and in good standing. Foreign members who are in intern status on April 18, 2007 will remain eligible to upgrade to Active Member. Should a foreign member not remain current and in good standing, he will be dropped from the rolls and must reapply pursuant to the constitution and by-laws in force at the time of re-application.
- D. POLYGRAPH: An instrument capable of the simultaneous, visual and permanent recording of changes in a person's respiration, galvanic skin response and cardiovascular systems. Other psychophysiological responses may also be recorded, but only in addition to and never in replacement of the above-listed.
