December 15th, 2008

Dear Fellow Sheriff:

The Western States Sheriffs Association invites you to join the only Association west of the Mississippi that is entirely dedicated to the office of Sheriff. WSSA offers training as well as networking opportunities to those dedicated to law enforcement in the west.

There are a different set of problems facing us than most of the Sheriffs in the east. For example, western sheriffs deal a lot more with the BLM, USFS and BIA than our eastern counterparts do.

Many of you are already members and this is your invoice for 2009 dues. Those of you who belong to state sheriffs associations that pay full state dues to WSSA and those of you who may have already paid your 2009 dues, please disregard this notice. WSSA is a 501(c)(3) organization, so take advantage of the tax break prior to the end of 2008.

If you are a new Sheriff or have never been to a WSSA meeting, please take the time to fill out the invoice, return it, and plan to attend the annual training and business meeting in Reno, Nevada at the Peppermill.

WSSA may not only be joined by the Sheriff, but any officer that is interested in the organization. Undersheriffs, Majors, Captains, Sergeants, Deputies and Detention Staff are included in our membership. Only Sheriffs may serve on the Board of Directors and as State Representatives to WSSA.

If you are interested in coming to the training and conference in March, we welcome you to visit our website and download the application and mail it to the address below.
