Important Notice about Voluntary Contributions to the AICPA PAC

The PAC enables the Institute to have a voice in issues affecting the profession, and participate in national debates. The PAC also contributes to the election campaigns of candidates who understand issues of importance to CPAs and the business community, whether Democrat or Republican.

AICPA member contributions to the AICPA Political Action Committee (PAC) are voluntary. Such contributions are used for political purposes. The amounts shown are only a suggestion. Members may give more or less than the suggested amount. A member not wishing to make a PAC contribution should deduct the suggested amount from the total shown on the dues bill. The AICPA will not look upon any member with favor, or disfavor, because of the amount of the contribution or a decision to make no contribution.

RESTRICTIONS

The PAC accepts individual contributions from members made by personal check or personal credit card, or by a personal check or credit card in the name of a sole proprietorship, and does not accept cash. If a contribution is made by a corporate or partnership check or a corporate or partnership credit card, it will not be deposited to the PAC or used to support federal candidates, but will be deposited to a separate (non-PAC) account used to pay PAC administrative expenses. Accordingly, members are urged to make contributions by personal check or credit card, or by a check or credit card in the name of a sole proprietorship. The PAC can accept contributions aggregating up to $5,000 per calendar year from an individual member (including a sole proprietorship). Accordingly, members are urged to make PAC contributions by personal check or personal credit card.

Federal law provides the following:

- Contributions by corporations (including professional corporations), foreign nationals and federal contractors are prohibited.
- Contributions to the AICPA PAC are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.

Federal law requires the PAC to report the name, mailing address, occupation and employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in a calendar year.
