DWI Court

The DWI Court will handle approximately 100 offenders every 6 months for a total population served of 200 offenders per year. Even though this is a small percentage of pending DWI's, the idea behind the program is to stop the revolving door that DWI's perpetuate.

Offenders who met the criteria;
been charged with a misdemeanor DWI and,
have a previous DWI arrest in their past and,
have no felony convictions and,
been assessed for chemical dependency issues,
will be accepted into the program.

The program will consist of several phases(these are still in the planning stage);

- 1) orientation and detailed criminogenic assessment (looking for issues that might inhibit success that are not substance abuse) (2 weeks)
- 2) treatment phase, substance abuse plus other cognitive treatment as needed (12-16 weeks)
- 3) discharge phase (10-12 weeks)

All participants will attend the court every other week during the orientation phase and transition to once a month court appearances in phase three.

All participants will have weekly office visits during phase 1, twice a month in phase 2 and monthly office visits in phase 3.

In addition numerous home and field visits will be conducted.
