

AMENDMENT TO EXHIBIT "A" PERFORMANCE STATEMENT

CONSUMER CREDIT COUNSELING OF SOUTH TEXAS having been certified as a non-profit, has been allocated ESG Surplus Funds. The non-profit shall carry out the following activities identified in its ESG Surplus Funds Application:

ESSENTIAL SERVICES / HOMELESS PREVENTION SERVICES

Consumer Credit Counseling of South Texas shall utilize the ESG Surplus Funds for essential services and homeless prevention activities. The essential services are to be used for salaries of counseling staff that will be assisting clients seeking assistance for homeless prevention. Homeless prevention activities include assistance to families and individuals who have received rental eviction notices and utility disconnect notices. A total of $95,683.68 was awarded for essential services and for homeless prevention activities.

The subrecipient agreement for Consumer Credit Counseling was approved on March 17, 2009 and ended March 31, 2010. The contract with Consumer Credit Counseling will be extended to May 31, 2010. The total amount amended on April 20, 2010 was for 41,232.49 for a new total of $136,916.17.

This request is to amend the subrecipient agreement with Consumer Credit Counseling by decreasing funds in the amount of $9,905.23 to their awarded amount for homeless prevention activities. The new subrecipient agreement amount will be $127,010.94.
