AMERICAN
HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Dear Ms. Storz,

Gardening is an act of renewal. Each time we start another season anew, our spade or hoe in hand, it is not only our gardens that are renewed ... we ourselves are renewed.

I'm writing to you in the spirit of renewal because it's time to renew your annual membership in the American Horticultural Society. I'd be grateful if you could send your renewal contribution back today to ensure no interruption to your membership.

As a member of the AHS, you're part of a vibrant community. One garden at a time, we are beautifying our yards, our communities, and our country.

But you're also a member of an organization that comes with some pretty special membership privileges. And first and foremost of these is The American Gardener magazine, our award-winning publication that's written by gardeners, for gardeners.

I don't know of any other gardening publication that brings you the unique perspective of The American Gardener: the independent authority so many gardeners trust and rely on. Every issue is full of beautiful color photography and practical gardening advice. Our members have called it "indispensable," and say they never miss an issue.

By renewing your annual membership in the AHS today with a gift of $70, you'll renew your subscription to The American Gardener while also maintaining uninterrupted access to all of your other member benefits, including:

- FREE admission and other discounts at more than 260 public gardens and flower shows across the country. Benefits will be extended to two members of your household for a contribution of $50 and to four members of your household for a contribution of $100 or more.
- Members-only invitations to participate in the AHS Annual Seed Exchange.
- Special discounts on all AHS educational programs.
- Webinars – Members give rave reviews of our popular webinars, lively online seminars featuring leading horticulture experts from across the nation. Don't miss out on this invaluable gardening resource!
- And much more.

Your membership renewal of $70 is vital in helping the AHS fulfill our non-profit mission of blending education, social responsibility, and environmental stewardship with the art and science of horticulture.

(over, please)

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL REPLY

YES, I am proud to be a part of this community of gardeners and am renewing my annual membership in the American Horticultural Society. Please keep my subscription to The American Gardener coming and all my other AHS membership benefits intact. I am enclosing my membership renewal in the amount of:

$70 $50 $35 Other $ _____

Please make your check payable to AHS.
To charge your renewal membership,

By renewing today, you help the AHS save money and preserve trees by not mailing any additional renewal notices. And you make sure you don't miss a single issue of The American Gardener, or miss out on any of your other exclusive AHS benefits.

I know you share my passion for gardening. For me, the real satisfaction of gardening comes not only from the fruits of our work — garden-grown flowers and vegetables — but from all our efforts that make their arrival possible. In this way, I like to think that the act of gardening isn't really about the destination ... but the journey.

Gardening can be hard work, and yet it rejuvenates our spirits. It can be solitary, and yet it can inspire others. More than a hobby, it's a way of life, because even when we're not gardening, we're thinking about gardening, and the joyful and complicated act of coaxing something beautiful or delicious (or both) from the good earth.

At the AHS, we believe more and greener gardens benefit everyone. That's why we promote gardening and horticulture to people of all ages. That's why we work with young people to encourage responsible stewardship of the earth. That's why we help our members practice "green" gardening. And it's one more reason why your membership in the AHS benefits you, benefits your community, and helps America grow greener ... one garden at a time.

But none of this is possible unless we continue to stand together as a community of gardeners committed to making the world a more beautiful place. Please renew your annual membership in the AHS today. I hope you are looking forward to many hours of gardening in the weeks and months ahead. I know I am!

Sincerely,

Tom Underwood
Executive Director

P.S. I hope you continue to enjoy your subscription to The American Gardener and all the many benefits of membership in the AHS. Thank you for renewing today. A personalized reply form and envelope are enclosed for your convenience. Remember, if you ever have any concerns, feedback, or ideas, you can reach us at membership@ahs.org or (800) 777-7931, ext. 119. We look forward to hearing from you. Until then, see you in the garden!
