This is absurd. Go ahead and type the County address and then add underneath the County address the following "With a copy to:" and then put the Precinct address.

Ms. Crain:

We have an observation/concern by the auditor as to the agreement's address. It has Pct. #2's address (since it is their project), but auditor point out it should be the County's principal address. Please comment so as to make the change, if necessary.

Mr. Crain:

Please note that they are requesting a $25 pre-payment. How do we deal with this?
