Honorable Ramon Garcia,

Our brother Leonel Trevino joined the army in 1948 at age 17 years old and made Sergeant. Sergeant Leonel Trevino was wounded twice in the Korean War and was also a prisoner from 1951 to 1953. He came home in 1953.

Sergeant Leonel Trevino spent 35 years in the Veterans Hospital in Waco, Texas. Sergeant Leonel Trevino received certificates of Honor in his memory from President Jimmy Carter and President Ronald Reagan. He also received nine medals of honor included 2 purple hearts and the United Nations Service medal.

A Street and an Elementary school were named "Sergeant Leonel Trevino." A huge celebration is being planned for this Veterans Day, November 11, 2011 to honor Leonel Trevino's memory.

We, his siblings, will be greatly honored to receive a letter of Recognition from you, and to be read aloud to the Students, Teachers and Visitors.

Sincerely yours,

Agustin J Trevino
