2012 Education Conference

Welcome to TAGITM! TAGITM members have access to excellent resources and an expanding network of professionals dedicated to meeting the information technology challenges in local governments across Texas. Please take a moment to familiarize yourself with the association's membership structure so that you choose the correct member type below.

Agency Membership is available to municipalities, counties, appraisal districts, school districts, or other governmental agencies. Dues in the amount of $100 are assessed to the organization each year on October 1.

You will be asked to designate a Voting Representative on behalf of your organization as you complete the registration process. The Voting Representative will receive an invitation to join as a member of TAGITM. Each organization may also designate Agency Representatives at no additional cost to the organization. You may provide these representatives during the initial registration process, or later by contacting tagitm@tagitm.org.

Affiliate Membership is available to hardware, software and service vendors, state agencies, and academic institutions interested in governmental information technology. Dues in the amount of $150 are assessed to the organization each year on October 1.
