Let's try it and see if they will remove it first.

Thanks.

Ms. Josie:

We usually ask the vendor to remove as it is not statutorily authorized for a County to indemnify. I will defer to you if you feel that the stated language is not enforceable. However, we will be glad to ask vendor to delete if you prefer. Let us know.

Marty,

These agreements are essentially the same. There is a concern with the language in the agreement since it requires the County, as the subscriber, to defend and indemnify Superior Alarms in the event a claim is made, even as a result of their own negligence. Now the way the paragraph on liability is worded and formatted, to me, does not make it a valid indemnity provision. How have these been handled in the past?

Mrs. Solis:

Please review and comment as to form for the agreements attached. One of the agreements is a purchase agreement. The other is the monitoring agreement. You may want to approve and state the approval covers any future exact type of agreements (if necessary).

Thanks,
Marty
