6. Representations

By accepting this policy, you agree:

- a. The statements in the Declarations are accurate and complete;
- b. Those statements are based upon representations you made to us; and
- c. We have issued this policy in reliance upon your representations.

The unintentional omission of, or unintentional error in, any information provided by you which we relied upon in issuing this policy will not prejudice your rights under this insurance. However, this provision does not affect our right to collect additional premium or to exercise our rights of cancellation or nonrenewal in accordance with applicable insurance laws or regulations.

7. Separation Of Insureds

Except with respect to the limits of insurance, and any rights or duties specifically assigned in this Coverage Part to the first Named Insured shown in the Common Policy Declarations, this insurance applies:

- a. As if each Named Insured were the only Named Insured; and
- b. Separately to each insured against whom claim is made or "suit" is brought.

8. Transfer Of Rights Of Recovery Against Others To Us

If the insured has rights to recover from others all or part of any payment we have made under this Coverage Part in connection with a claim or "suit", those rights are transferred to us. The insured must do nothing after loss to impair them. At our request, the insured will bring suit or initiate an alternative dispute resolution proceeding to enforce those rights, or will transfer those rights to us and help us enforce them.

We will apply any amounts recovered in enforcing those rights of recovery in the following order:

- a. First, we will reimburse any person or organization (including us or the insured) any amount that person or organization has paid in excess of the limits of insurance.
- b. Then, if there is any amount remaining, we will retain an amount equal to the amount we have paid under this Coverage Part in connection with the claim or "suit".

- c. Finally, if there is any amount remaining, we will pay that amount to the insured, including any amounts within any applicable deductible or self-insured retention.

If any amounts are recovered in enforcing those rights of recovery, reasonable expenses incurred in enforcing such rights will be shared among all persons or organizations receiving amounts recovered. Each such person's or organization's share of those expenses is based on the ratio of its amount recovered to the total amounts recovered by all such persons or organizations in enforcing such rights.

If the insured has agreed in a contract or agreement to waive that insured's right of recovery against any person or organization, we waive our right of recovery against such person or organization, but only for payments we make because of loss caused by a "wrongful act" committed subsequent to the execution of the contract or agreement.

9. When We Do Not Renew

If we decide not to renew this Coverage Part, we will mail or deliver to the first Named Insured shown in the Common Policy Declarations written notice of the nonrenewal not less than 30 days before the end of the policy period.

If such notice is mailed, proof of mailing will be sufficient proof of such notice.

SECTION VI - EXTENDED REPORTING PERIODS

1. We will provide one or more Extended Reporting Periods, as described below, if this Coverage Part is canceled or not renewed, or replaced or renewed by us with insurance that applies on other than a claims-made basis.
2. Extended Reporting Periods do not extend the policy period or change the scope of coverage provided. They apply only to claims or "suits" for loss caused by a "wrongful act" committed before the end of the policy period and after the Retroactive Date.
Once in effect, Extended Reporting Periods may not be canceled.
3. A Basic Extended Reporting Period is automatically provided without additional charge. This period starts with the end of the policy period and lasts for 90 days.

The Basic Extended Reporting Period does not apply to claims or "suits" that are covered under any future insurance you purchase, or that would be covered under such insurance but for the exhaustion of its applicable limit of insurance.

4. The Basic Extended Reporting Period does not reinstate or increase the limits of insurance.
5. A Supplemental Extended Reporting Period of 12 months is available, but only by an endorsement and for an extra charge. This supplemental period replaces the Basic Extended Reporting Period.

The Supplemental Extended Reporting Period will not go into effect unless we receive all of the following within 90 days after the end of the policy period and you have fulfilled all other duties, and complied with all other conditions and requirements, under this policy:

- a. A written request from you to purchase the Supplemental Extended Reporting Period Endorsement;
- b. Full payment of the earned premium for this policy;
- c. Payment of the additional premium for the Supplemental Extended Reporting Period Endorsement; and
- d. Repayment of any deductible you owe us under this policy.

We will determine the additional premium for that endorsement in accordance with our rules and rates. The additional premium will not exceed 75% of the annual premium for this Coverage Part.

This endorsement will set forth the terms, not inconsistent with this Section VI - Extended Reporting Periods, applicable to the Supplemental Extended Reporting Period, including a provision to the effect that the insurance afforded for claims or "suits" first made or brought against any insured during such period is excess over any valid and collectible other insurance available under insurance in force after the Supplemental Extended Reporting Period starts.

6. The Supplemental Extended Reporting Period does not reinstate or increase the limits of insurance.

SECTION VII - DEFINITIONS

1. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about your goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers or supporters. For the purposes of this definition:

- a. Notices that are published include material placed on the Internet or on similar electronic means of communication; and
 - b. Regarding web-sites, only that part of a web-site that is about your goods, products or services for the purposes of attracting customers or supporters is considered an advertisement.
2. "Advertising injury" means injury, other than "personal injury", caused by one or more of the following offenses:
 - a. Oral or written publication, including publication by electronic means, of material in your "advertisement" that slanders or libels a person or organization or disparages a person's or organization's goods, products or services, provided that the claim is made or the "suit" is brought by a person or organization that claims to have been slandered or libeled, or that claims to have had its goods, products or services disparaged;
 - b. Oral or written publication, including publication by electronic means, of material in your "advertisement" that:
 - (1) Appropriates a person's name, voice, photograph or likeness;
 - (2) Unreasonably places a person in a false light; or
 - (3) Discloses information about a person's private life; or
 - c. Infringement of copyright, "title" or "slogan" in your "advertisement", provided that the claim is made or the "suit" is brought by a person or organization that claims ownership of such copyright, "title" or "slogan".
 3. "Authorized user" includes your customer, supplier or supporter.
 4. "Bodily injury" means:
 - a. Physical harm, including sickness or disease, sustained by a person; or
 - b. Mental anguish, injury or illness, or emotional distress, resulting at any time from such physical harm, sickness or disease.
 5. "Computer virus" means malicious code that is introduced through your web-site or "your computer or communications network". Once introduced, such code may destroy, alter, contaminate or de-
