2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
 2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
 3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
 4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or
 5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.
- Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:
6. A corporation,
 7. A foreign central bank of issue,
 8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
 9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,
 10. A real estate investment trust,
 11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,
 12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),
 13. A financial institution,
 14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or
 15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 ²

² However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Note. If no name is circled when more than one name is listed, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Contract: C-13-034-01-22
Desc: "Road and Bridge, C.I.P and Other Projects in General"

DESIGN SURVEYING

A. Design Surveys

1. Field inspect project site and discuss proposed improvements with project engineer or designated Hidalgo County Precinct No. 3 representative. Determine in detail the information required by the project engineer and the format of the deliverables. All design surveys performed by RODS Surveying are under the direct supervision of an RPLS who will coordinate directly with the project engineer or other Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 representative.
2. Secure copies of Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 plans and right-of-way maps of the existing facility. Existing plans and maps can serve as quality assurance documents that all existing utilities and improvements are included in the surveys.
3. Compile all plans, maps and ground control information and review scope and purpose of surveys with field crew (s) and lead technician selected for the project.
4. Recover existing ground control or establish ground control. All horizontal ground control is established with static GPS and supervised by an RPLS who is a full time GPS mission planning and post processing specialist. Vertical ground control may be established with static GPS or differentially with digital levels depending on the project circumstances and the requirements of the District.
5. Locate and describe improvements and utilities for planimetric mapping and take cross sections and/or map terrain break lines and spot elevations for digital terrain modeling. Drainage structures, safety end treatments, bridge details and signage may be photographed with a digital camera for clarification when preparing deliverables. All occupied and backsight station set ups and instrument heights are field checked by tying to a third control point before vacating the occupied station. Target poles are fixed-height poles to minimize target height errors.

6. Process data collection files and review for errors and conformance to standardized procedures and policies.
7. Import SDMS (.prj) files into SDMS Processor or CAICE for processing and review data for anomalies.
8. Field inspect improvements, utilities and digital terrain modeling. This task is performed by a technician after all data collection files are processed and improvements and utilities are plotted.
9. Prepare Microstation 8 and Geopak 2004 (2D.dgn, 3D.dgn., .dat, and .tin) files and CAICE (.arc) files.
10. Make final review of files. This review is made by the supervising RPLS in conjunction with the lead technician working on the project.
11. Submit deliverables to Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 for review.
12. Address any questions or concerns voiced by Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 personnel, supplement and edit files as necessary, and resubmit deliverables.

Design Survey Deliverables

Deliverables for design surveys will consist of paper plots of planimetric and topographic surveys as required, copies of field survey processing reports and point tabulations on bond paper, photostatic copies of utility research and field notes, Microstation 8 and Geopak 2004 (2D.dgn, 3D.dgn., .dat, .tin, and .gpk) files, SDMS (.ctl, .prj, .cal), and CAICE (.arc) files as requested. This listing is representative of design survey deliverables and may vary depending on the requirements of the individual District.

Horizontal & Vertical Control

B. H&V Control for Aerial Mapping

1. Field inspect project site, review panel layout if prepared by Hidalgo County Precinct No.3, and discuss proposed flight with the project engineer or designated Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 representative. All aerial mapping ground control projects performed by RODS Surveying are under the direct supervision of an RPLS who will coordinate directly with the photogrammetrist, project engineer or designated Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 representative.

2. If not prepared by Hidalgo County Precinct No.3, prepare a panel layout according to Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 standards and submit for review.
3. Recover existing ground control or establish ground control. All horizontal ground control is established with static GPS and supervised by an RPLS who is a full time GPS mission planning and post processing specialist. Vertical ground control may be established with static GPS or differentially with digital levels depending on the project circumstances and the preferences of the District. In the event the center panels and established ground control are not one in the same, establish the coordinates and elevations for center panels and the elevations for wing panels. All traverses used to establish coordinates and elevations must be completely closed and not begin and end on the same control points.
4. Process all GPS data collection files, total station/data collector files and digital level files. Review data for errors and conformance to standardized procedures and policies.
5. Prepare control book.
6. Make final review of control book. This review is made by the supervising RPLS in conjunction with the lead technician working on the project.
7. Submit control book to Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 for review.
8. Address any questions or concerns voiced by Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 personnel, supplement and edit data as necessary, and resubmit control book.

Horizontal and Vertical Control for Aerial Mapping Deliverables

The primary deliverable for an aerial mapping ground control project will consist of a control book which contains;

1. Project control layout used to identify the limits of the project within a city or county wide area. The map will be of sufficient detail to show the proximity of the center panels and offsite control points with respect to local streets and major landmarks and will include the coordinates, elevations and bearing/distance between consecutive points
2. Primary control point layout sketch showing the relative position of NGS or Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 control stations which were used as the basis for the surveys with respect to the major aerial photography ground control points.
3. Datum statement sheet which describes the NGS or Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 control stations used and the horizontal and vertical datum of those stations, grid to surface adjustment factors, metric to English conversion factors, and the surveying equipment and processing software used to establish horizontal and vertical values for the control points.

4. Tabulations of the grid, surface and geographic coordinates and elevations derived for the control points.
5. Control sketch, which is signed and sealed by the supervising RPLS, for each major control point which includes a datum statement; grid, surface and geographic coordinates; elevation; surface adjustment factor; date set; physical description of point; and a recovery sketch.
6. Copy of all statistical reports for GPS surveys and closure reports for conventional surveys.
7. Copy of all NGS or Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 monumentation sheets for control stations upon which the surveys are based.
8. Copy of all survey crew field notes.

In the event the District does not require all items listed above, only those items required will be provided. This listing is representative of aerial mapping ground control deliverables and may vary depending on the requirements of the individual District.

RIGHT-OF-WAY Mapping

C. Right-of-Way Documents - The Surveyor will utilize State examples and provide the following:

1. Request right-of-entry and inform property owners of purpose for surveys. RODS Surveying will request the name of a Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 contact person that would be responsible for addressing specific questions regarding proposed improvements.
2. Research real property records and other public records (State, County, City, etc.). RODS Surveying will utilize the services of a permanent professional research firm of demonstrated competence.
3. Prepare a digital working sketch of property lines based on deed research to be used by field crews to locate corners and right-of-way line markers, and later by technicians for analysis purposes.
4. Superimpose working sketch on Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 or commercially available aerial images to identify parent tracts, identify landlocked parcels, and review impacts to improvements and land use.
5. Field locate improvements and utilities, and make preliminary recovery of property corners and existing right-of-way line markers based on the working sketch.

6. Perform calculations and analysis to determine property line and existing right-of-way line locations. An RPLS will normally perform this function, but may be assisted by an experienced technician to the extent the RPLS is familiar with and confident in the abilities of the technician.
7. Field locate property corners and existing right-of-way line markers not recovered during the preliminary survey. The field crews will be provided search coordinates for this purpose. All existing corners must be recovered. No property line or existing right-of-way line location will be defined by calls when controlling monumentation exists.
8. Field inspection of improvements and utilities. This task is performed by a technician after all data collection files are processed and improvements and utilities are plotted.
9. Finalize property line and existing right-of-way line locations. All final locations are reviewed in depth by the supervising RPLS.
10. Monument existing and/or proposed right-of-way lines as required by the District. All monuments set are field verified to be in the correct location by relocating the monument from control other than the control used to set the monument.
11. Prepare right-of-way map sheets, parcel plats and property descriptions. It should be noted that policies and requirements change with time. A map prepared for a District a year ago may not be exactly what is required of the same District today. RODS Surveying works closely with the designated Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 representative to insure that deliverables meet the requirements of the individual District.
12. Proofread all right-of-way mapping documents to insure consistency of presentation and elimination of errors.
13. Submit mapping deliverables for Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 review.
14. Address any mark ups made by Hidalgo County Precinct No.3 personnel and resubmit mapping.

Right-of-Way Mapping Deliverables

Deliverables for right-of-way mapping will consist of paper and mylar plots of the map sheets and parcel plats as required, copies of property descriptions on bond paper, area calculation sheets on bond paper, photostatic copies of research records, Microstation 7 (.dgn) files of the right-of-way map sheets and parcel plats, Microsoft Word (.doc) files of the property descriptions, ASCII (.txt) files of the area calculation sheets and the Geopak 2004 (.gpk) file of all mapping data. This listing is representative of right-of-way mapping deliverables and may vary depending on the requirements of the individual District.
