The Rio Grande Sustainability Council and the Brownsville Affordable Homeownership Corporation are hosting the 7th Annual Energy Efficiency and Conservation Conference on Thursday, July 18, 2013, from 8:30 AM to 4:00PM. The event will focus on how energy efficiency practices and conservation programs can make a positive impact on both the private and public sectors that comprise our community, the Rio Grande Valley. The Conference and will be held at the Brownsville Events Center located at 1 Events Center, Brownsville, TX 78526.

The theme of the conference centers on challenging our leaders and citizens to take action to further conservation efforts in order to build a better, more sustainable future for all those of us who call the RGV home. The conference speakers will address the economic and environmental benefits to be reaped. They will highlight examples of success stories and ultimately propose action steps in "Energizing Our Future." The valuable information presented will benefit local governments, private businesses, schools, consumers, and the local workforce.

The conference will consist of five general sessions centered on the various sectors that comprise our community. Each session will examine how each entity (i.e., school district, city, etc.) can employ conservation efforts such as energy efficiency programs, alternative energy installations, and other sustainable practices to do their part in "Energizing Our Future." A lunch keynote speaker will address the conference participants on the future of energy efficiency and conservation in the Rio Grande Valley and the state of Texas.

The conference registration is $25.00 and conference exhibit space 3ft.x8ft. table is $50.00. For further information, please contact Hilario Diaz at 956-466-8111 or visit our website at www.rgvsc.org

Come join us as we discuss ways in which we can conserve energy, explore alternative energy sources, enable new job creation and do our part to protect our planet and its resources. For more information on the conference, please contact Hilario Diaz at 956-466-8111.
