The Elections Department has chosen to use Information Management Solutions located in San Antonio, TX as our vendor for the 2013 massive mail out. Last year we worked with Information Management Solutions and even though they weren't the lowest bidder this year; we still decided to go with them based on the previous experience we had with them. We were completely satisfied with their work and look forward to working with them again this year.

Thank you for continued cooperation. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at anytime (956) 318-2570 ext. 5707.
