I understand the withdrawn distributions, if any, will be made under the most favorable tax treatment available to me unless I am at least 59 1/2 years of age or I use the funds withdrawn to pay certain deductible medical expenses as provided by law.

be due to financial hardship and heavy financial need or hardship, and all other reasons permitted by the Company. I understand that I will receive it. In addition, I understand that I will be required to pay certain deductible medical expenses as provided by law.

IRB rules require that you stop making contributions to the 401(k) Plan for at least 6 months upon taking this hardship withdrawal.

The IRS only allows the following reasons for taking a hardship withdrawal. Check the one that applies to you.

- Medical expenses incurred by me, my spouse, or any of my dependents (or any expense necessary to obtain medical care).
- Purchase (excluding mortgage payments) of my principal residence.
- Payment of tuition, related educational fees, and room and board expenses for the next 12 months of post-secondary education for me, my spouse, my children, or my dependents.
- The need to prevent eviction from or mortgage foreclosure on my primary residence.
- Funeral or burial expenses for my parent, spouse, child or dependent.
- Repair of casualty damage to my primary residence that would be deductible under IRC Section 163.
